

Instrument Library Terms and Conditions

1. Membership Eligibility

1.1. To become a member of the Instrument Library, individuals must be a current client of Play Anything Music Therapy.

2. Borrowing Instruments

2.1. The borrowing period for each instrument is 30 days. Extensions may be granted based on availability and approval by PAMT

2.2. Members are responsible for the proper care, handling, and safekeeping of borrowed instruments.

2.3. Instruments must be returned in the same condition as when borrowed, with all included accessories.

3. Late Returns

3.1. Members are expected to return borrowed instruments on or before the due date.

4. Instrument Maintenance and Repairs

4.1. The library will ensure that all instruments are in good working condition before loaning them to members.

4.2. Members must promptly report any damage or issues with borrowed instruments to PAMT.

4.3. Members are responsible for any repairs or replacement costs resulting from negligence or misuse of instruments.

5. Privacy and data collection

5.1. The library will collect and store members' personal information for administrative purposes only and will not share this information with third parties without consent.

6. Termination of Membership

6.1. The library reserves the right to suspend or terminate a member's privileges for violations of these terms and conditions, including repeated late returns or reckless damage caused to instruments.

By becoming a member of the Instrument Library, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to abide by these terms and conditions. Failure to comply with these terms may result in the suspension or termination of membership privileges.